

A 'CONVERSATIONS' SERIES: PHILOSOPHY IS INQUIRY

An open invitation to anyone aged 18-30.

Melbourne School of Philosophy is delighted to offer an interactive series of three talks that have been designed for 18-30 year olds wondering about life's bigger questions, or may be interested in Philosophy itself, but have little or no experience with the subject. The course is intended to give a simple 'snapshot' of how philosophy may be practical in everyday life.

Dates: Sunday, 12th, 19th and the 26th July 2026 from 11am-1pm.

Venue: Melbourne School of Philosophy
45 Riversdale Road, Hawthorn VIC 3122

Session 1: We ask what and where is heart? Is it just a physical thing? If not, what is it? We are introduced to the Sanatana Dharma or natural laws.

Session 2: Looks at the importance of conversation to Philosophic Inquiry - what is True? And what effect does discussing Truth have on our lives in Melbourne 2026?

Session 3: We let the questions do the work. What is the nature of reflection? We study the story of Narcissus and ask what happens when the question is fully answered?
